Such an organisation may withdraw or replace its nominee at any time by written notice to the Company, but such that no more than 1 (one) nominee of each such organisation may be entered in the Register of Members as a current member at any given time. - 27 Pursuant to section 353 of the Act, the Register of Members shall be kept at the Office unless the Company arranges for the work of making up the Register to be done by another person on behalf of the Company, in which case it may be kept at the office where the work is done, provided that such office shall be within Scotland.

- 28 Membership of the Company shall not be transferable and shall cease upon:
- 28.1 the death of an individual Full Member, the dissolution of a Corporate Associate Member or, in the case of a Nominee Associate Member, if the organisation which nominated her or him is dissolved or withdraws its nomination; or

- 28.5 the lapse of membership due to the failure of a member to pay any annual subscription for the time being in force under Article 49.

Withdrawal from membership

- 29 Any person or organisation wishing to withdraw from membership shall lodge with the Secretary a written notice of withdrawal signed by her or him or, in the case of an organisation, by one of its authorised officers.
- 30 Upon receipt of a notice of withdrawal from membership by the Company the member in question shall cease with immediate effect to be a member of the Company; provided that after such withdrawal the number of members remaining is not fewer than 2 (two).

Renewable membership

- 31 Whether or not any subscription for membership is in force, membership of the Company shall be subject to renewal after each period of 3 (three) years, on the first accounting reference date of the Company thereafter.
- 32 The Secretary shall give to all members whose membership is due for renewal not less than 14 (fourteen) clear days' notice of the accounting reference date. Each notice shall:
- 32.1 advise the member that her, his or its membership falls due for renewal on the accounting reference date; and
 - 32.2 contain particulars of the member currently held on the Register of Members; and
 - 32.3 where applicable, specify the amount and request payment of membership subscription due under Article 44, and
 - 32.4 request from the member confirmation of her, his or its wish to renew membership, the accuracy and currency of the particulars held on the Register of Members; and
 - 32.5 state the possible consequences of failure to renew membership under Article 33.

Lapse of membership due to failure to renew

- 33 Provided the requirements of Article 32 have been complied with, any membership in respect of which a renewal has not been received by the Secretary by the end of the 28th (twenty-eighth) day after the accounting reference date on which it fell due shall be deemed to have lapsed.
- 34 The Secretary shall, in the event of a membership lapsing under Article 33, give notice to the member concerned advising her, him or it of the fact and of the reasons.
- 35 A lapsed member in receipt of a notice under Article 34 may renew her, his or its membership within a further 28 (twenty eight) days from the date of the notice, after the expiry of which any attempt by the lapsed member to renew her, his or its membership shall be treated by the Directors as a new application.

Removal from membership

- 36 The Company may, by special resolution in general meeting, terminate the membership of any person or organisation in cases where:
- 36.1 the Company believes that the actions of the member in question have brought, or risk bringing the Company into disrepute; or
- 36.2 the Company believes that the member in question has repeatedly or purposely breached any explicit rules of the Company or other reasonable rules or standards of good order.
- 37 Any member wishing to propose the removal of another member shall lodge with the Directors a written notice of her, his or its intention to do so (identifying the member or members concerned and stating the grounds for the proposed removal) not less than 28 (twenty eight) days before the date of the next general meeting of the Company.
- 38 The Directors shall put all proper proposals to remove a member made under Article 37 to the next general meeting of the Company, which shall consider the proposal and resolve as it thinks fit.
- 39 The Directors shall, on receipt of a notice under Article 38, send at the earliest possible time a copy of the notice to the member or members concerned who shall have the right to make written representations to the Directors with regard to the notice.
- 40 If the Directors receive any written representations made under Article 39 they shall (unless they are received too late for them to do so):
- 40.1 state the fact of the representations having been made in the notice convening the meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and
- 40.2 send a copy of the representations to every person or body to whom notice of the meeting was or is given.
- 41 Whether or not a copy of written representations has been given to each of the persons entitled to receive notice of the meeting under Article 40.2, a member in question shall have the right to be heard (either in person or by her, his or its representative) at the meeting before a final resolution is made.

42 Failure to follow correctly any of the provisions of Articles 36 to 41 shall render invalid any resolution for the removal of a person or organisation from membership.

43 A person or organisation removed membership under Article 36 shall cease to be a member with effect from the time at which the resolution to remove her, him or it was passed.

Membership subscriptions

44 The Company may, by ordinary resolution in general meeting, introduce an annual subscription for membership, and determine the amount of such subscription and vary the amount from time to time and from one class of member to another.

45 Subject to Article 47 the Company may authorise the Directors to adopt whatever methods they think most expedient to collect payment of any subscription charge and to use their discretion to apply any reduction or waiver or to agree to receive payment by instalments in cases where they think fit.

46 Any annual subscription for the time being in force shall be due on each accounting reference date of the Company and shall (subject to Articles 48 and 52) be deemed to relate to the period from one accounting reference date to the next.

47 In accordance with Article 32, where any annual subscription is in force, the Secretary shall give to all members from whom a subscription payment is due, not less than 14 (fourteen) days' notice of the accounting reference date. Such notice shall specify the amount of membership subscription due and shall state the possible consequence under Article 49 of failure to make payment.

48 In the case of a person or body admitted to membership of the Company on a date other than the accounting reference date of the Company, the Directors may calculate the subscription to be paid by her, him or it in the first part-year of membership on a pro rata basis.

Lapse of membership due to failure to pay subscription

49 Provided the requirements of Articles 32 and 47 have been complied with and provided no waiver or arrangement to pay by instalments has been agreed under Article 45, any membership in respect of which any annual membership subscription for the time being in force has not been received by the Company by the end of the 28th (twenty-eighth) day after the accounting reference date on which it fell due shall be deemed to have lapsed.

- 50 The Secretary shall, in the event of a membership lapsing under Article 49, give notice to the member concerned advising her, him of the fact and of the reasons.
- 51 A lapsed member in receipt of a notice under Article 50 may renew her, his or its membership by payment of the required annual subscription within a further 28 (twenty eight) days from the date of the notice, after the expiry of which any attempt by the lapsed member to renew her, his or its membership shall be treated by the Directors as a new application.

Non-refundable subscription

- 52 Any person or organisation who ceases to be a member of the Company for whatever reason shall not be entitled to any refund of all or any part of any annual subscription paid by her, him or it, whatever the period between the date on which the membership subscription was last paid and the date of ceasing to be a member.

Annual General Meeting

- 53 Subject to Article 54 and to the requirements under section 366 of the Act, the Company shall hold an Annual General Meeting in each year at such time and place as the Directors shall decide, in addition to any other general meetings.
- 54 Not more than 15 (fifteen) months shall elapse between one Annual General Meeting and the next; provided that so long as the Company holds its first Annual General Meeting within 18 (eighteen) months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year.

Extraordinary general meetings

- 55 All general meetings of the members of the Company other than Annual General Meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
- 56 The Directors may call extraordinary general meetings at any time and shall proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting:
- 56.1 pursuant to the provisions of section 368 of the Act, on the requisition of the members of the Company representing not less than one-tenth of the voting rights of all the members at the date on which the requisition is made; or 56.2 pursuant to the provisions of section 392A of the Act, on the requisition of a resigning auditor.

57 If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient Directors to call an extraordinary general meeting, any Director or any member of the Company may call an extraordinary general meeting.

Notice of general meetings

58 An Annual General Meeting and an extraordinary general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by at least 21 (twenty one) clear days' notice. Except where special notice is required to be given under any provision of the Act all other extraordinary general meetings shall be called by at least 14 (fourteen) clear days' notice but a general meeting may be called by shorter notice if so agreed:

58.1 in the case of an Annual General Meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote; and

58.2 in the case of any other meeting by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote who together hold not less than 95% (ninety five per cent) of the total voting rights at the meeting of all members.

59 The notice of all general meetings shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted and, in the case of the Annual General Meeting shall specify the meeting as such.

60 The notice of all general meetings shall be given to all members of the Company and its Directors and to the auditors of the Company (if any).

61 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person or organisation entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Quorum at general meetings

62 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting of the Company unless a quorum is present. 20 (twenty) persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a Full Member or a proxy for a Full Member, shall constitute a quorum.

- 63 In the event that the total Full Membership of the Company becomes fewer than 20 (twenty) there shall be a quorum when a majority of the Full Members entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted is present (in person or by proxy) at a general meeting.
- 64 If the quorum required under Articles 62 or 63 is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as may be determined by the chairperson of the meeting.

Presiding at general meetings

- 65 Subject to Article 152, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall, if present, preside over general meetings. If the Chairperson is not present or willing to act within half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting the Directors present shall appoint one of their number to preside over the meeting or, if only one Director is present and willing to act, she or he shall preside over the meeting.
- 66 If no Director willing to preside is present within half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the Full Members present shall appoint one of their number to preside over the meeting.

Adjournment of general meetings

- 67 The chairperson may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place; provided that no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had an adjournment not taken place.
- 68 When a meeting is adjourned for 28 (twenty eight) days or more, at least 7 (seven) clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

Resolutions at general meetings

- 69 To be passed, an ordinary resolution shall require a simple majority of the votes cast (either in person or by proxy) in favour of the resolution.
- 70 To be passed, a special resolution shall require a majority of not less than three-quarters of the votes cast (either in person or by proxy) in favour of the resolution.
- 71 To be passed, an elective resolution shall require all of the votes cast (either in person or by proxy) in favour of the resolution.
- 72 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided upon by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a ballot is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a ballot may be demanded by:
- 72.1 the chairperson of the meeting; or
- 72.2 at least 2 (two) Full Members (or proxies for Full Members) having the right to vote at the meeting.
- 73 Unless a ballot is demanded in accordance with Article 72, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against the resolution.
- 74 The demand for a ballot may be withdrawn before the ballot is taken, but only with the consent of the chairperson. The withdrawal of a demand for a ballot shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand for a ballot was made.
- 75 If a ballot is demanded in accordance with Article 72 it shall be taken at once by means of a secret ballot of all the persons present and entitled to vote (whether as Full Members or proxies for Full Members) and shall be conducted in such a manner as the chairperson shall direct. The chairperson may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and may fix the time and place for declaring the results of the ballot.
- 76 The result of a ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the ballot is demanded and taken.
- 77 If the chairperson directs that the result of a ballot is not to be declared immediately this shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any other business other than the question on which the ballot was taken.

- 78 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a ballot, the chairperson shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

Written resolutions

- 79 A resolution in writing signed by the necessary majority of the members entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting and received by the Secretary within 28 (twenty eight days) after the date on which notice was given of the said resolution shall be as effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting. Such a resolution may consist of several documents in the same form, each signed by 1 (one) or more members.

Votes of members

- 80 Subject to Articles 78 and 82 every Full Member of the Company and every Director of the Company (whether or not she or he is a Full Member of the Company) shall have one vote at general meetings of the Company, exercisable in person or by proxy.
- 81 An Associate Member shall have the right to receive notice of, to attend and to speak at general meetings of the Company but not (unless she or he is also a Director) to vote.
- 82 No Full Member of the Company shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all monies then payable by her or him to the Company in the form of subscriptions or otherwise have been paid in full, except in circumstances where the Directors have agreed to reduce or waive any such payment or permit payment to be made by instalments under Article 45.
- 83 No objection shall be raised to the validity of any vote or the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairperson of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Appointment of proxy

- 84 A Full Member (but not an Associate Member) and a Director (whether or not she or he is a Full Member) shall have the right to appoint a proxy to vote on her or his behalf at any general meeting or adjourned meeting. A proxy may be any person aged 16 (sixteen) years or over, who need not be a member of the Company but who shall not be an employee of the Company, provided that no person may act as a proxy for more than one Full Member or Director at the same meeting.

- 85 A Full Member or Director wishing to appoint a proxy under Article 84 shall lodge with the chairperson of the meeting not less than 48 (forty eight) hours prior to its commencement an instrument of proxy in writing or by means of electronic communication in such form as the Directors may decide, subject to Article 86, signed by her or him.
- 86 An instrument appointing a proxy under Article 85 may, for each resolution on which a vote is to be taken at the meeting, either:
- 86.1 instruct the proxy to cast her or his vote in favour or against the resolution or to abstain from voting; or
- 86.2 indicate that the proxy may exercise her or his own judgement in deciding how to cast her or his vote.
- 87 A Full Member or Director shall not be entitled to appoint more than 1 (one) proxy to attend and vote on her or his behalf at the same general meeting.
- 88 A proxy properly appointed to attend and vote at any general meeting in place of a Full Member or Director shall have the same right as the person she or he is replacing to speak and vote, including the right to vote by show of hands, to vote on any amendment to a resolution and to demand a ballot. No proxy shall have the right to vote if she or he is replacing a Full Member who is not eligible to vote under Articles 82.

Board of Directors

- 89 The business of the Company shall be managed and administered by a Board of Directors whose members shall be understood to be directors of the Company for the purposes of the Act, who shall be registered as directors with the Registrar of Companies and who shall also be understood to be the Trustees of the Company for the purposes of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.
- 90 There shall be a maximum of 18 (eighteen) and a minimum of 3 (three) Directors comprised as follows:

- 90.1 There shall be, subject to Article 92, a minimum of 3 (three) Directors who are members of the Company (Full or Associate) proposed prior to and appointed at an Annual General Meeting as provided for by Articles 95 to 100 (for the purposes of these Articles referred to as the Elected Directors); and
- 90.2 There may be a maximum of 6 (six) or a maximum equivalent to the number of Elected Directors, whichever is the lesser, other Directors, who need not be members of the Company, co-opted by the Directors as provided for by Article 101 (for the purposes of these Articles referred to as the Co-opted Directors).
- 91 The first Directors shall be those persons named in the statement delivered pursuant to section 10(2) of the Act, who shall be deemed to have been appointed under the Articles. Future Directors shall be appointed as provided for subsequently in these Articles.
